Essex, Monday the 7th of July at Chelmsford.
Hertford, Thursday the 10th of July at the Town of Hertford.
Sussex, Monday the 14th of July at Eastgrinsted.
Surrey, Thursday the 17th of July at Kingston upon Thames.
Kent, Monday the 21. of July at Maidston.

Oxford Circuit.
Mr. Justice Levinz,
Mr. Baron Streete.

Berks, Monday the 7th of July at Reading.
Oxon, Wednesday the 9th of July at Oxford.
Worcester, Saturday the 12th of July at Worcester.
City of Worcester, The same day at the City of Worcester.
Stafford, Thursday the 17th of July at Stafford.
Salop, Monday the 21. of July at the Town of Salop.
Hereford, Saturday the 26th of July at Hereford.
Monmouth, Thursday the 31. of July at Monmouth.
Glocester, Saturday the second of August at Glocester.
City of Glocester, The same day at the City of Glocester.

Venice, June 10. This Morning the Procurator Morosini Captain General of the Forces of this State, sailed from hence with 16 Ships, 5 Galeasses, and 2 Galleys, to joyn the rest of the Fleet. They have on board a great many Land-men, which are commanded under the General by the Count de Strassoldo. From Dalmatia they write, that the Turks having attempted to retake Duares from the Morlaques, they were defeated with the loss of 200 men. By a Vessel arrived from Cyprus we have advice, that the Grand Signior hath caused all the Goods belonging to the Subjects of this State to be seized.

Milan, June 7. Our Governor the Count de Melgar, has, since his return from Genoua, given out Commissions for twenty Companies of Foot, which are to be raised in Lombardy; and there is a discourse of making another Levy of Germans.

Leghorne, June 6. The 31. past, arrived in this Port three French Men of War commanded by Monsieur Tourville, who sailed again the third Instant, being, it's said, bound for Tripoly. The Popes Galleys, and those of our great Duke, are gone to joyn the Venetian Fleet.

Vienna, June 11. The Letters from Hungary give an account that the Imperial Troops had passed the Waag at several places without holding a General Rendezvous; and that on the eighth Instant the Duke of Lorrain had his Quarters near Comorra, having about 30000 men in a Body, not reckoning those that are commanded by the Baron de Mercy and those of the Prince de Lubomirski, and that the Count de Staremberg our Governor arrived the seventh at his Highnesses Quarters, being accompanied with Father Marc d'Aviano, and the Baron Abele. Count Maximilian de Staremberg is likewise gone to the Army, being to command the Artillery; and in few days the Galleys, and other small Vessels that are to be commanded by the Count de Vecchi, will be in a condition to part from hence. The Letters from Buda of the first Instant tell us, that the Poles and Cossacks have defeated a great Body of Turks and Tartars on the Frontiers of Moldavia; and that of these 16000 and eight Bassas were slain; and that Serasquier Bassa, who at the Siege of this City, was Aga of the Janisaries, and was appointed by the Grand Signior to command his Forces this Campagne in Hungary, upon the news of this defeat, had orders sent him to march with the best of his Troops towards Valachia; The Turks thinking it of the greatest importance to them, to secure themselves on that side.

Linz, June 13. They write from Hungary, that the Duke of Lorrain was on his march with the Imperial Army towards Buda, having left Newheusel blocked up by the Troops commanded by the Baron de Mercy; and we hope that place will not be able to hold out much longer, all our advices assuring us it is reduced to the last extremity. The Count de Dracowitz has undertaken to raise a Regiment of Hungarians for the Emperors Service. And the Palatine of Hungary does assemble the Troops of that Kingdom.

Cologne, June 20. The Deputies which our Magistrates sent to Bonne, returned last night, but we know not yet what report they have made of their Commission. The French do demolish the Fortifications of Trier, except the Walls which will be left standing for the security of the place; and we have advice that the Mareschal de Crequi hath likewise put Garisons into Witlich and Bern Cassell.

Hamburg, June 20. The Danish Troops are marching to the General Rendezvous in Holstein; The King of Denmark is at present at Itzehoe, but purposes to go from thence to Oldesloe. The Dukes of Lunenburg have put some Troops into Domitz belonging to the Duke of Mecklenburg. Our last Letters from Cracow gave an account that the King of Poland was arrived on the Frontiers of Podolia, where his Army was to Rendezvous; and that all things were preparing for the Siege of Caminiec.

Hague, June 23. The Provinces of Holland, Friezeland, Groningen, Utrecht and Over-Yssell have agreed to the Truce proposed by his Most Christian Majesty. And the Deputies of Zealand and Gelderland are expecting the return of the Expresses they sent to their Principals, which it's not doubted but will likewise bring the consents of those Provinces. So that it's believed the States General will to morrow take
